

The Atomic Data-powered Nakivale Community Library - officially established in June 2019
- has served more than 130,000
unique library visitors of all ages, genders, and ethnicities.

Nakivale Refugee Settlement community members & friends celebrate the official launch of the Atomic Data Nakivale Community Library Network, June 2019

The NCLN reports 12 unique nationalities
of library visitors.
All are welcome.

Jim and Alight Sudan team member Abdirahman, connect and exchange ideas about the region, January 2020 Kampala, Uganda

There are more than 4,200 books that have been registered to the NCLN, majority of which are in 04 regionally relevant languages:
Kiswahili, French,
Kinyarwanda, and English.

Jim and a young Congolese Nakivale Refugee Settlement resident read together, January 2020

The NCLN team has hosted more than 70 mobile library engagements to exponentially expand the reach of library services by thousands.

Atomic Data NCLN staff do mobile library site visits with Jim, January 2020 Isingiro, Uganda

Atomic Data employs 09
NCLN team members.

ALIGHT

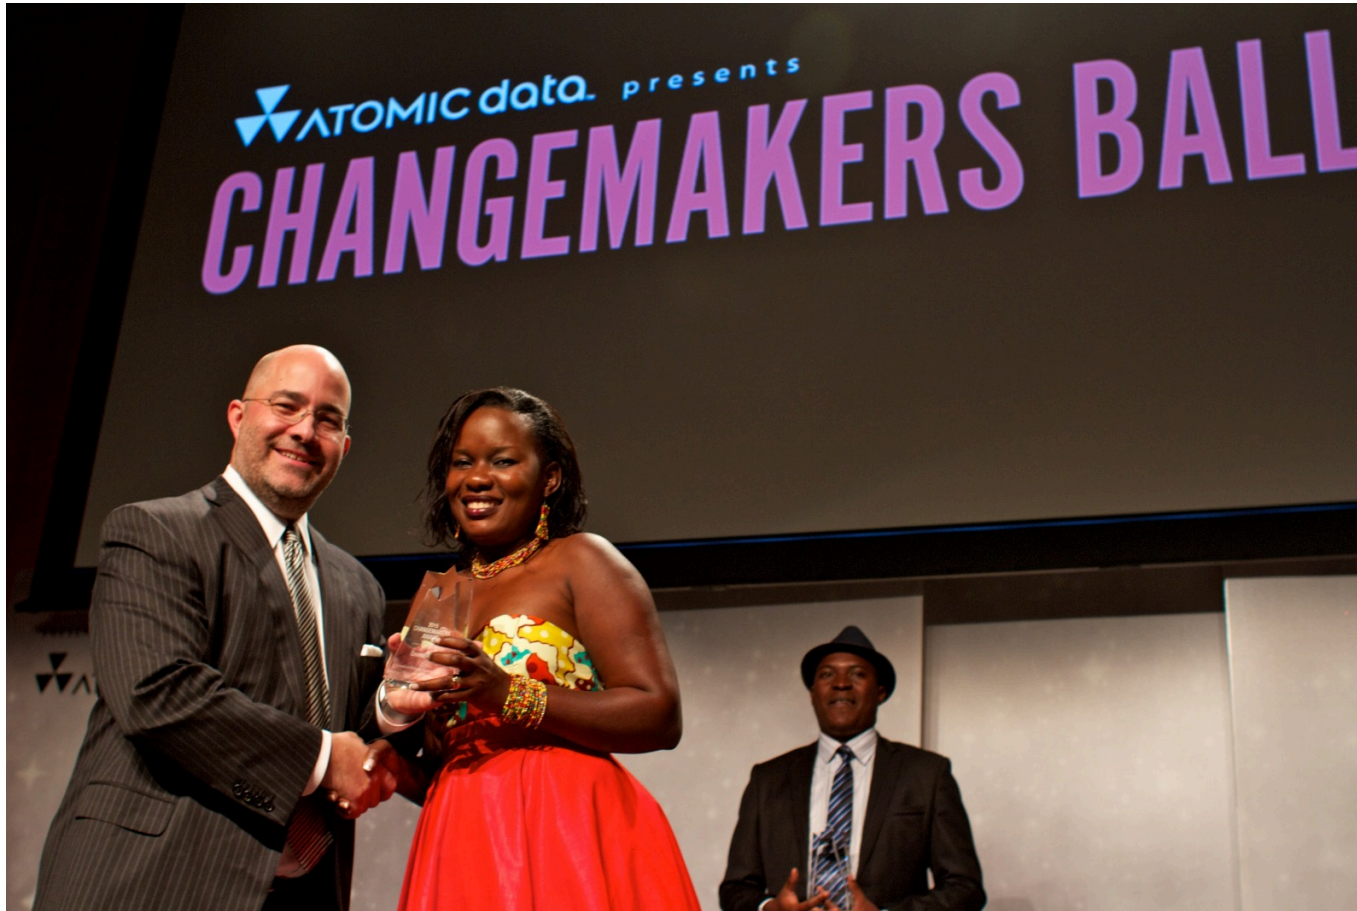

Jim's first visit to the Nakivale Community Library, January 2020

Atomic Data has sponsored 06 rounds of Changemakers 365 projects – a program where in one round, for 30 days, community members generate ideas at $500 per day to represent the significant positive change possible when we set out to simply do the doable. An incredible 180 days and projects of positive community change.

Jim and Alight team member Ambrose shop for Changemaker 365 products Mbarara Uganda, January 2020

Atomic Data has sponsored 08 major Alight events and engagements in Uganda and the United States, 05 of which Jim personally hosted including galas, launches, and other celebrations.

Jim hosts the Atomic Data presented Changemakers Ball, Minneapolis 2017

Atomic Data & the Wolford Family have contributed over $1.5 million to Alight initiatives since 2011 - this support has created critical and joyful change for displaced community members all around the world.

Amy Wolford draws with a young Nakivale Refugee Settlement resident during the NCLN launch celebration, June 2019